Please pray for the...

Rajput of India

Population:	45,348,000
Language:	Hindi
Religion:	Hinduism
Evangelical:	Unknown
Status:	Unreached

The name Rajput is derived from the Sanskrit word rajputra, meaning son of a ruler. The Rajputra constitutes a class of nobility. The Rajput clans emerged as a dominant community in north and western India in the colonial period. The economic data suggests that the majority of Rajput are landowners. A large number of communities have migrated to their present habitat and this has made them one of the most mobile groups. High caste communities find it especially difficult to humble themselves enough to accept God's free gift.
